

PROGRAMME

Raising Strong and Resilient Communities, Training for Community Leaders

	Day 1	Day 2	Day 3	Day 4
Start 9:00
Welcome	Storytelling and narrative	Your story	Your community	Looking ahead
	Introduction Brief on RSRC Expectations and personal learning goals	Storytelling <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The art of storytelling What makes a good story? Exercises 	Stories in communities People don't resist change, they resist being changed <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Whose stories should be heard? Who has a right to know? 	Reflections on yesterday Working on own cases/ plans
Coffee and tea
	Learning contract Outline of the RSRC manual, and the detailed programme of this course	Storytelling and story listening <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Continuing of the morning Telling stories so others will listen 	Community mapping and planning exercises Feedback and reflecting on your community	Working on own cases/ plans Feedback on working on own cases/ plans
Lunch
	The power of stories <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Experiencing how stories are made and how you are made of stories Input on story vs. narrative, the assumptions behind working with them, and PNI 	Storytelling continues <ul style="list-style-type: none"> From a good to a useful story Whose story is it any way? 	Story sharing and story collecting exercises Feedback and reflecting on your community	Rounding up the learning and connecting it to the learning before the course, and the learning to come after it. Using outsider witnessing
Coffee and tea
Welcome	Dialogue, not debate <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Experiencing the logic behind any story 	From you to your community <ul style="list-style-type: none"> What's your story What does it do for you ... Lets check that... 	Meaning making and action planning exercises Feedback and reflecting on your community	Evaluation
End 16:00				